

Called to Lead, 2011: An Invitation for You

If you are wondering where you are going in your professional and personal life and feel that you could be doing something more significant, we invite you to explore "Called to Lead," a four-week intensive experience for Augsburg alumni and friends of the College. Together we shall explore the challenges of leadership, the nature of servant leadership, the centered life, seeing things whole, and the development of your own strategic game plan.

Join us for four spring mornings (7:30 am-9:00 am on April 26, May 3, 10, 17) before work and emerge energized and renewed for new challenges in your life.

Facilitators include Professors Tom Morgan, Jack Fortin, and Norma Noonan. The workshop is co-sponsored by the Augsburg Center for Faith and Learning and the Augsburg Center for Leadership Studies.

For more information, please contact Norma Noonan (noonan@augsborg.edu). Total cost: $200 tuition, which includes books, weekly breakfast, and all sessions. Registration closes April 1, 2011.

Application:

Name _____

E-mail _____ Phone _____

Mailing address: _____

Augsburg Alumnus/alumna _____ Year _____ N.A. _____

Why are you interested in this seminar?

Return this application via e-mail (noonan@augsborg.edu) or US mail to:

Dr. Norma Noonan
Campus Box 107, Augsburg College
2211 Riverside Ave., Minneapolis, MN 55454

(Please make check for $200 payable to Augsburg College and mail directly to Prof. Noonan.)

Called to Lead, 2011: An Invitation for You

If you are wondering where you are going in your professional and personal life and feel that you could be doing something more significant, we invite you to explore "Called to Lead," a four-week intensive experience for Augsburg alumni and friends of the College. Together we shall explore the challenges of leadership, the nature of servant leadership, the centered life, seeing things whole, and the development of your own strategic game plan.

Join us for four spring mornings (7:30 am-9:00 am on April 26, May 3, 10, 17) before work and emerge energized and renewed for new challenges in your life.

Facilitators include Professors Tom Morgan, Jack Fortin, and Norma Noonan. The workshop is co-sponsored by the Augsburg Center for Faith and Learning and the Augsburg Center for Leadership Studies.

For more information, please contact Norma Noonan (noonan@augzburg.edu). Total cost: $200 tuition, which includes books, weekly breakfast, and all sessions. Registration closes April 1, 2011.

.....
Application:

Name _____

E-mail _____ Phone _____

Mailing address: _____

Augsburg Alumnus/alumna _____ Year _____ N.A. _____

Why are you interested in this seminar?

.....
Return this application via e-mail (noonan@augzburg.edu) or US mail to:

Dr. Norma Noonan
Campus Box 107, Augsburg College
2211 Riverside Ave., Minneapolis, MN 55454

(Please make check for $200 payable to Augsburg College and mail directly to Prof. Noonan.)