Homecoming 2005 -- Auggies host Knights!

Augsburg College (0-3) welcomes Carleton College (1-2) to Edor Nelson Field for today's Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference football contest. This is the 25th meeting between Augsburg and Carleton, a series tied at 12-12. The series began in 1978, when Carleton was a member of the Midwest Conference, and the teams have played every year since Carleton joined the MIAC in 1983. Carleton is 12-10 against Augsburg in MIAC games. Augsburg has won the last eight games in a row in the series.

This is Augsburg's Homecoming contest, as part of a week of activities with the theme of "Roarin' and Soarin' Auggie Style," as Augsburg takes cues for its annual celebration from the glamour and excitement of the Roaring '20s, with a contemporary twist. After today's game, the Homecoming Dinner will begin at 5:30 p.m. at the Christensen Center. Sports fans are also invited to return to Edor Nelson Field tonight, as the men's soccer team hosts St. Scholastica in a nonconference game. The game begins at 7:30 p.m., with a pregame men's soccer alumni gathering set for 5:45 p.m. in the Si Melby Hall gymnasium.

Augsburg is still in search of its first football victory for new head coach Frank Haeger, after dropping its first three games to start the season. Last week, the Auggies surrendered 31 unanswered points in a 16-minute stretch of the first half and fell 53-17 at St. Thomas. Freshman Shawn Dunbar (Fr., Brooklyn Park, Minn./Osseo HS) rushed 16 times for 82 yards for the Auggies. Junior quarterback Keith Hagen (Jr., Northfield, Minn.), in his first career start, completed 14-of-26 passes for 187 yards, including a 15-yard scoring pass to Ricky Schreier (Jr., Maplewood, Minn./Cretin-Derham Hall HS). Andrew Neumann (Jr., Somerset, Wis.) caught three passes for 51 yards and Schreier had three receptions for 50 yards. Defensively, Mike Matson (Jr., Cedar, Minn./St. Francis HS) was in on 14 tackles and Darrell Young (Fr., Minneapolis, Minn./Henry HS) had an interception. Senior Nick Schlieman (Sr., Burnsville, Minn.) averaged 42.3 yards on three punts.

Carleton enters today's game at 1-2, with one of its largest rosters -- 82 players -- since World War II. The roster includes 33 freshmen, believed to be the largest recruiting class in school history. The Knights dropped a close 39-31 battle with defending MIAC champion Concordia-Moorhead last Saturday. Two Knights earned MIAC Player of the Week honors -- running back/return man R.J. Jackson (So., Roseville, Minn./De La Salle HS) on special teams and wide receiver Mike Kootsikis (Jr., Rosemount, Minn.) on offense.

Augsburg Hall of Famers to be introduced at halftime!

On Thursday night, Augsburg inducted seven individuals as new members of the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. The Hall of Fame was established in 1973 to recognize those who have participated in the College's long and proud athletic history, as well as to establish a means whereby alumni, students and the public can be made aware of and take part in Augsburg's athletic tradition. This year's class of inductees will also be introduced during halftime of today's game. Inductees are:

MARK ANDERSON '81 -- Considered one of the top goalkeepers in the history of Augsburg men's soccer, Anderson earned All-MIAC honors in 1978, 1979 and 1980, also earning NAIA All-District honors his junior and senior seasons. In his senior season of 1980, he set several records to lead the Auggies to an 11-1-3 overall record and MIAC championship (9-0-3 MIAC). Anderson currently works for Andersen Windows. He and his wife, Maureen, have two sons -- Drew and Bret, and live in Woodbury, Minn.

JIM FINCH '84 -- A three-time All-MIAC selection (1982, 1983, 1984) at goalie, Finch was a member of Augsburg's 1982 NAIA national championship squad. He earned tournament MVP and All-American honors in the Auggies' national title season, and was also a captain on the 1983-84 Auggie team that won the MIAC Thanksgiving Tournament and finished fourth in its first appearance in the NCAA Division III national tournament. He now lives in West Allis, Wis., and serves as vice president of sales for Ace Worldwide Moving and Storage. He and his wife, Lori, and two stepdaughters, Jenna Hicks and Sara Hicks.

STEVE GLIVA '85 -- Gliva accomplished a unique feat in the storied history of Augsburg's wrestling program, as he is the only Auggie wrestler ever to earn five All-American honors, including a second-place finish in 1985 and a national title at 118 pounds in 1984. Gliva won MIAC titles in 1982, 1984 and 1985, and was named Augsburg Honor Athlete in 1985. He owns his own chiropractic practice in Farmington, Minn., where he and his wife, Kelley, live with their two sons, Marty and Victor.

STEVE GRINDE '81 -- Grinde was a four-year letterwinner and linebacker for an Auggie football squad that showed strong improvement throughout his tenure. As a team-captain in 1980, his Auggies finished 5-5, including a dramatic 21-10 win at St. John's. He was named Augsburg's Honor Athlete in 1981, and earned Academic All-NAIA District 13 honors in 1980. He currently operates his own dental practice in Maple Grove, Minn., where he lives with his wife, Kathy, and their three children, Anders, Kjersten and Eric.

ANDREA HAIGHT SWANBERG '91 -- Haight Swanberg was an outstanding athlete in two sports at Augsburg -- softball and women's basketball. In softball, she earned All-MIAC honors three times and earned NFCA All-Region and All-American honors her senior season as a catcher. In basketball, Haight earned All-MIAC honors her junior and senior seasons. She earned Academic All-MIAC honors twice in both basketball and softball, and earned CoSIDA Academic All-American honors in softball her senior season. She is currently working as activities director at St. Cloud Tech High School, and she and her husband, Craig, have four children -- Carissa, Kasey, Callie and Emily.

MARK HERZOG '85 -- Herzog earned All-MIAC honors in two sports, baseball and men's hockey. A three-time All-MIAC selection and two-time captain in baseball, Herzog earned team MVP honors his junior and senior seasons, as the Auggies went 79-59 in his four seasons, with two second-place MIAC finishes and two fourth-place conference finishes. In hockey, Herzog was a four-year letterwinner, earning All-MIAC honorable-mention honors twice. Herzog owns his own lifestyle and business development firm, Team High Impact, Inc. He lives in Oakdale, Minn., with his wife, Angela, and their four daughters, Claire, Rachel, Emily and Olivia.

MAGGIE McDONOUGH '79 -- McDonough was a three-sport athlete at Augsburg, as a member and team captain of the women's basketball, volleyball and softball teams. McDonough also served for two years as a student representative to the Minnesota Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women. Teams she played for qualified for MAIAW state tournaments in each of her three sports, including a second-place finish in softball, eighth-place finish in women's basketball and sixth-place finish in volleyball her senior season. McDonough has served for 17 years as a senior manager for FedEx, and lives in St. Paul, Minn.

Blaine High School Marching Bengals perform at halftime!

The Blaine High School Marching Bengals will perform during halftime of today's game. This year's Marching Bengals' fall field show production is entitled "La Noubal!" This exciting production showcases some of the most memorable music from the exciting theatrical production of "Cirque Du Soieil." The Marching Bengals are part of a comprehensive music program which includes four concert bands, two jazz bands, pep band, and various other ensembles. The musicians you see before you rehearse entirely outside of the school day and comprise one of the largest extracurricular activities at Blaine High School.

The Marching Bengals are under the direction of Shawn Kolles. One of the band's staff members, Michelle Connolly, is an Augsburg student. She is on the colorguard instruction team. Other staff members: Dan Noraker, assistant director; Andy Tye, drill design and instruction; Shawn Burtis, Tim Hauser and Matt Shervey, percussion instruction; Kristin Connolly and Breanne Gervais, colorguard instruction; and Acacia Dalager, Andrea Erickson, Brad Hale, Chris Holm and Matt Olson, Blaine alumni staff.

2005 Marching Bengal Leadership Team is: Kaitlin Fautch, Chelsie Zinken, Brittany Swanson, Jesse Ng, Greg Weegman, Marie Shelstad, Christina Ireton, Rexxi Prasaya, Lucas Benson, and Anna Wilt.

Soloists are Marie Shelstad and David Isakson, and drum majors are Ryan Freitas and Ashley Norskog.
