

Faculty-Led Study Abroad 2009-10

Spring Semester / Winter WEC
Apply by October 1!

Vocation & Christian Faith: El Salvador

January 2010 ▪ REL 480 ▪ 1 credit

Hear the stories of the Salvadoran people, explore Christian faith, and reflect on how our beliefs affect our vocations. Faculty: Matt Marrugi

Sounds & Sights of Paris: France

January 2010 ▪ MUS 206 (FIA 100) ▪ 1 credit

Learn to see deeply through sketching and listen deeply through music appreciation opportunities at key cultural sites and musical events in Paris. Faculty: Merilee Klemp & Tara Sweeney

Globalization & Women's Movements: Nicaragua

January 2010 ▪ HIS 195 or INS 233 ▪ 1 credit

Discover the influence of US and other global interests when you discuss contemporary issues with Nicaraguan politicians, scholars, activists, and workers. Faculty: Michael Lansing

Spring WEC
Apply by February 1!

WWII & Its Aftermath: Germany & Poland

2 weeks in May 2010 ▪ HIS 195 & ENL 270 ▪ 2 credits

Explore the shifting experiences of East Europeans since WWII. Discover how people make sense of suffering and consider what part memory should play in everyday life. Faculty: Jacqueline DeVries & Robert Cowgill

For more information:

Andrea M. W. Dvorak

Augsburg Abroad Office ▪ Murphy Place 200 abroad@augsbuurg.edu ▪ 612-330-1669

Summer Session I
Apply by February 1!

Writing & Medieval History: Scotland

Mid-May-Mid-June 2010 ▪ HIS 195 & ENL 282 ▪ 2 credits

Experience monastic life in an Abbey as you examine the history of medieval Scotland and practice writing creative non-fiction. Faculty: Philip Adamo & Colin Irvine

Thai Education & Culture: Thailand

May 2010 ▪ ENL 199 or 399 ▪ 1 credit

Interact with the people of the Northern Hill tribes, explore Buddhist temples, and experience ELL teaching in a southern village. Faculty: Kathryn Swanson

The Travels of Paul: Turkey

May 2010 ▪ REL 410 ▪ 1 credit

Experience the famous cities Paul the Apostle traveled to and spoke about in the Gospels, as you experience contemporary Turkey and its Islamic influences. Faculty: Phillip Quanbeck II

Summer Session II
Apply by March 1!

Sustainable Cities: Canada

July 2010 ▪ SOC 111 or SOC 295 ▪ 1 credit

Compare US and Canadian policy making for urban sustainability, as you "walk-the-talk" by using public transport, eating locally, and living green. Faculty: Lars Christiansen & Nancy Fischer

Office of International Programs

