

Faculty-Led Study Abroad 2009-10

Winter Break

Apply by October 1

Vocation & Christian Faith: El Salvador

January 3-10, 2010 • REL 480 • 1 credit
AugExperience • Keystone • REL Elective

Hear the stories of the Salvadoran people, explore Christian faith, and reflect on how our beliefs affect our vocations.

Faculty: Matt Marrugi

Sights and Sounds of Paris: France

Dec. 26-Jan. 8, 2010 • FIA 100 • 1 credit
Augsburg Experience • Fine Art LAF

Learn to see deeply through sketching and listen deeply through music appreciation opportunities at key cultural sites and musical events in Paris.

Faculty: Merilee Klemp & Tara Sweeney

Globalization & Women's Movements:

Nicaragua

January 3-10, 2010 • HIS 195 or INS 233 • 1 credit
AugExperience • Humanities LAF • WST Elective

Discover the influence of US and other global interests when you discuss contemporary issues with Nicaraguan politicians, scholars, activists, and workers. Faculty: Michael Lansing

Spring WEC

Apply by February 1

WWII & Its Aftermath: Germany & Poland

May 15-29, 2010 • HIS 195 & ENL 270 • 2 credits
AugExperience • Humanities LAF • HIS Elective

Explore the shifting experiences of East Europeans since WWII. Discover how people make sense of suffering and consider what part memory should play in everyday life.

Faculty: Jacqueline DeVries & Robert Cowgill

Summer Session I

Apply by February 1

The Travels of Paul the Apostle: Turkey

3 weeks in May 2010 • REL 410 • 1 credit
AugExperience • Humanities LAF • REL Elective

Experience the famous cities Paul the Apostle traveled to and spoke about in the Gospels, as you experience contemporary Turkey and its Islamic influences. Faculty: Phillip Quanbek II

Writing & Medieval History: Scotland

Mid-May-June 2010 • HIS 195 & ENL 282 • 2 credits
AugExperience • CTSkill • Humanities LAF • HIS Elective

Experience monastic life in an Abbey as you examine the history of medieval Scotland and practice writing creative non-fiction. Faculty: Philip Adamo & Colin Irvine

Thai Education & Culture: Thailand

May 5-28, 2010 • ENL 199 or 399 • 1 credit
AugExperience • Wrt/Spk Skill • IA • Humanities LAF • ENG Elective

Interact with the people of the Northern Hill tribes, explore Buddhist temples, and experience ELL teaching in a southern village. Faculty: Kathryn Swanson

Summer Session II

Apply by March 1

Sustainable Cities: Canada & the US

July 8-August 1, 2010 • SOC 111 or SOC 295 • 1 credit
AugExperience • Social Science LAF • SOC Elective

Compare US and Canadian policy making for urban sustainability, as you "walk-the-talk" by using public transport, eating locally, and living green. Faculty: Lars Christiansen & Nancy Fischer

Globalization and Migration: Mexico

July 31– Aug 8, 2010 • non-credit • AugExperience

This CGE seminar will allow Augsburg students, faculty and staff to understand the connections between globalization and migration between Mexico and the United States. Participants will receive a generous grant from Hoversten Endowment.