

You are invited to apply for a $2,100 scholarship to be an Augsburg

LILLY SCHOLAR 2008-2009

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Current sophomores or juniors at Augsburg who have an interest in attending seminary or pursuing graduate study in the sacred arts or theology are eligible to apply. (Note that this does not mean the applicants have made a definite commitment to attend seminary or to pursue graduate study in a field related to religion, but only that they are considering that option.) Applicants should have a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0 or higher.

WHAT ARE THE REQUIREMENTS?

Lilly Scholars will register for and participate in a year-long academic seminar (REL 405/406). Successful completion of the seminar will confer 1.0 upper division credit in the Religion Dept. This seminar can serve as an elective in the REL major or minor. Course requirements will include readings and assignments, and participants will create a final portfolio expressing their reflections on vocation.

In consultation with their advisor and the seminar leader, participants may also elect to take graduate-level courses that are relevant to their seminary interests.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS?

- unique opportunity to explore the wide range of possibilities for ministry
- the chance to hear presentations from people in a wide variety of ministry fields
- seminar setting that is small and supportive
- $2,100 scholarship
- 1.0 upper division credit in the Religion Dept.

HOW DO I APPLY?

1. Compose a one-page letter that includes a statement indicating why you are interested in exploring seminary. The letter should also indicate your academic interests. Complete an application form (which will be available the Lilly Office, Memorial 231) and attach it to your letter.
2. Obtain a letter of support from either your academic advisor or a faculty member who has taught at least one of your courses.
3. Submit all materials to Diane Glorvigen, Campus Box 114.

WHAT IS THE DEADLINE?

The application deadline is Friday, March 28, 2008.

If you have questions, please contact Diane Glorvigen at 612-330-1334 or glorvige@augsborg.edu.
