

Mathematics Tutoring & Supplemental Instruction Schedule

MAT 105 (Day): Applied Algebra — Spring 2007

Need assistance with your math class? Help is available!

Professor Your professor's office hours are listed on the syllabus and posted in Science 137. Stop by with questions, concerns, or just to let your prof know how the course is going. If you have any special needs it is very important that you talk directly to your professor -- if you can't make the scheduled times, ask your professor for an appointment.

Help Session Facilitator: For MAT 105 Applied Algebra there is an Augsburg College mathematics major who facilitates help sessions on the evenings before exams and quizzes. See below for times and location. If there are changes to the schedule, your instructor will provide information regarding the dates, times and locations of the sessions.

Study Group Facilitator: Undergraduate math majors are available to facilitate organized study groups that meet regularly. If you are having difficulty with the material, contact the Tutor Coordinator to form and take part in a facilitated study group for your course. You and your peers will work on the material and the facilitator will help out when you are stuck or veering off in the wrong direction. It usually takes one week to make arrangements.

Tutor, private In special circumstances private tutoring is also available. Contact the Tutor Coordinator: Matthew Haines at 612-330-1050. It usually takes one week to make arrangements.

Academic Skills Office: The two Academic Skills Coaches are trained to provide study tools and time management skills. They can also help you with test taking strategies and techniques. Feel free to stop by Science Room 116 or contact either Debbie Shapiro (shapiro@augsborg.edu) or Annette Carpenter (carpenta@augsborg.edu) at (612) 330-1291.
