

AUGSBURG COLLEGE

Application for Military Tuition Grant

Augsburg College offers a 10 percent tuition grant to personnel currently serving full- or part-time in any branch of the United States armed forces, spouses of active personnel, or veterans of any branch. The discount is available only to students in the Augsburg for Adults program.

Terms and Conditions

- This application must be submitted by the first day of the term in which the initial grant will be applied. The form is required only once. It is not necessary to submit this form each term.
- Once eligibility is verified, students will receive the grant moving forward from the current term of enrollment. Discounts may not be applied to completed terms.
- The grant may not be used concurrently with any official Augsburg College tuition discount programs.
- The grant will be applied to the student's account after the last day to withdraw without record notation. Academic calendars for all programs are available on the Registrar's Web site.
- Grants may be adjusted or reversed if the student withdraws from all courses after the term start date.
- The grant may be applied to summer session courses only if they are part of a cohort-based program such as the Master of Business Administration or Physician Assistant programs.
- The Military Tuition Grant will be listed as financial aid on any third-party invoices or itemized statements sent out by the college.
- Any student receiving the Thoni Scholarship is ineligible for the Military Tuition Grant.

I have read and agree to the above Terms and Conditions.
